The Chicago Tribune.

VOL. 23. CHICAGO, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1869. NUMBER 125.

WASHINGTON.

Increase in the Public Debt, Since March Last, $64,232,070.63.

Heavy Reduction of Expenses in the Navy Department.

Decisions Rendered in the United States Supreme Court.

Government Suit Against Delinquent Tennessee Railroads.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

PRACTICAL OPERATION OF THE REVENUE ASSESSORS.

Mr. Tenney, Commissioner of the Internal Revenue, has made a communication to the Secretary of the Treasury, in which he says that the system of assessors, which went into effect on the 1st of July last, has been found to work well, and that every district in the country has been visited by the assessors and assistant assessors, and the work of assessing the property of those who have failed to make returns is nearly completed. The number of assessors and assistants employed in the several districts is stated, and the average length of time of each, and the average cost of assessing each person assessed in each district, is given. The whole number assessed is 253,000, and the cost of assessing the taxable, the net profits, and personal sales of dividends, is $1,000,000.

CUSTOMS DUTIES.

Commissioner Delano to-day received a letter from Chairman Morrill, of the Committee of Ways and Means, which read as follows:

"DEAR SIR: Richard Smith and three partners are selling five cases of cassimeres at auction, and refuse to pay the duty of 10 per cent ad valorem, claiming that the goods are damaged. Please inform me whether the duty is to be paid on the damaged or undamaged value of the goods."

Commissioner Delano replied that the duty should be paid on the undamaged value of the goods, which must be ascertained by the appraisers.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court of the United States has rendered decisions in the following cases:

Ex parte Yerger, appellant. Motion to dismiss appeal for want of jurisdiction. Motion granted.

The Tribune.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1869.

A RAGING MOB.

The Triumph of the Democratic Lickspittles in the City of Brotherly Love.

Philadelphia only split the Radical vote in the election of the majority of the State ticket by the unusual fact of the Democratic candidate for Governor receiving 15,000 votes more than the Democratic candidate for Auditor-General. The Democratic candidate for Governor got up to the full strength of the party, and the Democratic candidate for Auditor-General got up to the full strength of the party, and the Democratic candidate for Governor got 15,000 votes more than the Democratic candidate for Auditor-General. The Democratic candidate for Auditor-General got up to the full strength of the party, and the Democratic candidate for Governor

THE COURTS.

The Rights of a Husband Sustained by a Judge.

A Grand Field Day in the Supreme Courts.

The Police Courts.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

Thomas Tunnicliff et al. v. Richard Hoyne. Judge Drummond ordered in the sum of the parties, half of each half of accounted moneys and proceeds of the sale of the property in dispute, to be paid to the solicitors of the complainants.

Alice Greenwood, &c., v. Peter Pelgrin, Colonel J. Co. Assignee, &c. Ordered to be paid.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Dickey.

Frank Bellinger v. Thomas Bellinger. Motion for a new trial overruled. Judgment on the verdict.

Patrick Hennessy v. Michael Hennessy. Motion for a new trial overruled. Judgment on the verdict.

Frederick Hoffman v. Jacob Hoffman. Motion for a new trial overruled. Judgment on the verdict.

Jacob

TO-DAY.

The Last Hours of the Court House Barnacles.

Seventy and Seventy to Meet Corruption and Extravagance To-Day.

Let Every Citizen Attend the Polls and Do His Duty.

And the Court Room will be Solomon's Temple No Longer.

Vote Early, and See to it that Your Neighbor Votes.

List of Voting Places.

It is hardly necessary to call upon the citizens of Chicago and Cook County to vote. Every man who is a citizen and who has any interest in the welfare of the city, or the prosperity of the county, will be present at the polls to-day. It is not a question of party, but of honesty and economy. The Republican party has nominated a ticket which is honest and economical, and which will be elected unless the Democrats can succeed in getting out a larger vote than the Republicans. The Democratic party has nominated a ticket which is dishonest and extravagant, and which will be defeated unless the Republicans can succeed in getting out a larger vote than the Democrats. The issue is a plain one, and there will be no excuse for any man who does not vote. All the Republican voters and their friends should be at the polls early in the morning, and they will be there. Every member of the party will be on the ground, and will work for the success of the ticket. The Democrats will be there, but they will not be there in force. They will not be there in such numbers as to make victory certain. They will not be there in such numbers as to make victory probable. They will not be there in such numbers as to make victory possible. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat certain. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat overwhelming. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat crushing. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat annihilating. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat disgraceful. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat infamous. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat damnable. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat hellish. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat the work of the devil. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat the work of the devil and his imps. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat the work of the devil and his imps, and to make it impossible for any man to tell whether it was the work of the devil or of the Democratic party. They will be there in numbers sufficient to make defeat the work of the devil and his imps, and to make it impossible for any man to tell whether it was the work of the devil or of the Democratic party